RECOMMENDATIONS:

Sian-Blue is exceptional! I had never worked with recruiters before and was not sure what to expect, but from Sian-Blue's first message on LinkedIn, she was incredibly personable and professional. She politely asked if I was open to discussing new opportunities and clearly explained the role and company she was recruiting for. Although I wasn't actively job-hunting in this industry, Sian-Blue's passion and enthusiasm for the sector and the company persuaded me to apply. During the application process, she promptly answered all my questions and responded to any concerns. Throughout my four interviews, Sian-Blue always checked in before and after, providing me great feedback at every stage. It was an absolute pleasure to work with Sian-Blue and I can only hope that my future experience with the recruitment industry is able to match her standard!

Sian-Blue contacted me just before lock-down with a couple of positions that I might be interested in. She took the time to understand my CV and was able to have an informed discussion about my future career goals and motivators that drive me. This was refreshing as I have some niche areas of expertise that are generally misunderstood by non-technical recruiters doing keyword searches. This is not the case with Sian-Blue! After our chat she put me forward for a position abroad, which in itself is a challenge without a Covid-19 pandemic. Throughout the interview process Sian-Blue was very supportive and kept me motivated when things took much longer than expected, which was a big factor on what I believe will be the landing of my dream job. I found our interactions both friendly and informative, and would definitely recommend her fighting in your corner!
